

Anju

Korea has a deep and exciting food culture & Anju is specifically the food that Koreans enjoy when they go out drinking with friends. We've put together a selection of Anju that pair well with the various drinks we offer, but if you want a specific recommendation, please don't hesitate to ask.

Please let your server know about any allergies you have!

OBBA Menu

A rotating menu of our favorite Anju served in two courses. The first course offers a variety of banchan and snacks while the second course consists of classic anju and rotating specials! Choose one option per person, but remember all dishes are to be shared, so choose a variety. If you can't decide, we're happy to assist!
